

Beth Garcia Svopa is a graduate of Salisbury University, The Perdue School of Business, located in Maryland. Beth obtained her insurance license in 1991; Property & Casualty and Life / Health. In 2008, Beth obtained the prestigious "Certified Insurance Counselor" Designation.

Beth has over 32 years' experience in commercial insurance, 19 years in Maryland and most currently 13 years in Florida. Beth is a Senior Vice President for Brown and Brown Insurance and reports to the Fort Lauderdale office. Beth's clients are both local, regional, and national. Brown & Brown Insurance is the 5th largest insurance brokerage in the world and the largest in the state of Florida whose reputation is built on a solid foundation of people dedicated to providing the highest degree of knowledge and service.

Beth is an active board member of the Boys and Girls Club of Martin County in addition to serving on the board for the Cystic Fibrosis, Southeast Florida Chapter. Furthermore, Beth is a member of the National Association of Women in Construction and the National Alliance, Insurance Education and Research. Beth supports various not for profits which include PAL (Police Athletic League), Wounded Veterans Relief Fund, Construction Angels, and Hearts for Moms.

Beth resides in Palm City Florida, along with her husband and 4 children.