

Dominique Arrieta utilizes her passion for architecture and expertise in the built environment to provide effective leadership as President and Chief Executive Officer at GHP, Inc. After assuming the role of CEO in 2015 and Owner in 2016, Dominique expanded GHP into three distinct business units: Architecture, Environmental, and Construction Services. These divisions focus on providing comprehensive solutions for improving the built environment. As majority owner, she led the initiative to transform Gobbell Hays Partners (GHP) into GHP, Inc., a Women's Business Enterprise (WBE). Forward-thinking and growth-minded, Dominique continues to drive development at GHP while preserving the company's 45-year-old legacy of client commitment and industry innovation.
